The Department of Health Sciences and Kinesiology in the Waters College of Health Professions invites applications and nominations for the position of Department Chair and Associate Professor/Professor. This position will be based on the Armstrong campus but the department also has faculty and programs on the Statesboro campus.

In January 2017, the University System of Georgia Board of Regents voted to consolidate Armstrong State University and Georgia Southern University. The new, 27,000-student university will be named Georgia Southern University with campuses in Savannah, Statesboro, and Hinesville. The expected timeline for the first entering class will be fall 2018. Complete details are available at http://consolidation.georgiasouthern.edu/.

Within this setting, the Department of Health Sciences and Kinesiology is a dynamic and growing unit of over 60 faculty and staff serving over 1,500 majors enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs in areas that include health education and promotion, exercise science, athletic training/sports medicine, sport psychology, nutrition and food science, health administration, health informatics, health and physical education, sport management, and coaching education. The department strives to become an elite academic unit, and this position would provide the leadership to support that vision.

Position Description: Reporting to the Dean of the Waters College of Health Professions, the Department Chair and Associate Professor/Professor provides leadership and vision for the Department; advocates for the Department’s needs and programs; supports faculty members in their teaching, professional development, service, and intellectual contributions; and ensures the fiscal integrity of the Department. The position is a 12-month appointment and carries tenured faculty rank at the associate professor or full professor level. The salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Required Qualifications:

- Earned doctorate in one of the Department’s academic disciplines, or a closely related field;
- Exemplary record of teaching, research, and service appropriate to the rank of tenured professor (or associate professor) in one of the academic disciplines housed in the Department;
- Record of progressively more responsible leadership positions in higher education;
- Commitment to teaching, scholarship, and service that is consistent with the College’s priorities for the Department and the mission of the university;
- Minimum of 5 years full-time college/university experience at the Assistant Professor level is required for the rank of Associate Professor along with a strong record of research and service with publications and presentations in professional venues;
- Minimum of 5 years full-time college/university experience at the Associate Professor level is required for the rank of Professor along with a strong record of research and service with publications and presentations in professional venues;
- History of demonstrating a collaborative administrative style of leadership, embracing shared governance, and building a culture of trust and confidence with faculty, staff, students, and administrators;
• Interest in and ability to develop an understanding and appreciation for the disciplines within the unit;
• Demonstrated ability to develop an environment that supports faculty success in securing grants and contracts for teaching, research, and service;
• Commitment to successful outreach with external stakeholders;
• Knowledge of accreditation requirements for disciplines in the unit, as well as knowledge of trends and issues challenging higher education;
• Effective organizational, interpersonal, and communication skills;
• Successful record of, and commitment to, equality of opportunity, and diversity with demonstrated respect and advocacy for faculty, staff, and students;
• Must be authorized to work in the United States for the duration of employment without assistance from the institution.

Screening of applications begins March 9, 2018, and continues until the position is filled. The preferred position starting date is July 1, 2018. A complete application consists of a letter addressing the qualifications cited above; a curriculum vitae; and the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses of at least three professional references. Other documentation may be requested. Only complete applications and applications submitted electronically will be considered. Finalists will be required to submit to a background investigation. Applications and nominations should be sent to:

Dr. Barry Joyner, Search Chair, Search #67574
Waters College of Health Professions
Georgia Southern University
Electronic mail: joyner@georgiasouthern.edu
Telephone: 912-478-5322

More information about the institution is available through http://www.georgiasouthern.edu or http://chp.georgiasouthern.edu/hk/. Georgia Southern University seeks to recruit individuals who are committed to working in diverse academic and professional communities and who are committed to excellence in teaching, scholarship, and professional service within the University and beyond. The names of applicants and nominees, vitae, and other non-evaluative information may be subject to public inspection under the Georgia Open Records Act. Georgia Southern University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity institution. Individuals who need reasonable accommodations under the ADA to participate in the search process should contact the Vice Provost.